

ALFREDO POSSE
serving in CHASCOMUS

Dear Very Beloved Brethren,

We are thankful for the opportunity that we have to share the news of the work in Chascomus.

The weekly women's meeting is held in the home of Noemi Navalinkas. Recently Rocío, a 16-year-old who is six months pregnant, heard the gospel and believed. Please be in prayer for her, that she will grow in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. Pray also for her boyfriend, Johnny.

This past week, my wife Judith had the opportunity to share in the ladies' study at the church in Haedo. It has been three years since she has seen the ladies at that church; it was an emotional reunion with old friends and new sisters in Christ.

We organized a special meeting for the Biblical Club, encouraging the members to invite a friend to hear the word of God. There were games, special music and a beautiful presentation of the gospel. By the grace of God, there were 23 in attendance—four of them had never before heard the gospel. Pray that the Holy Spirit will be at work in their hearts.

We are grateful that God brought Ezequiel Navalinkas, son of Jorge and Patricia, to church along with his girlfriend Emilia. Ezequiel was baptized as a youth, but has fallen away from the church. Emilia is not a believer. Gabriel, Ezequiel's brother, also came to the service. The three had the opportunity to listen to the word of God. The gospel was presented by our brother in Christ, Horacio. Please pray for their salvation; they have shown no signs of brokenness.

Every Thursday afternoon, I meet with the brethren to pray for one another and to study the word of God. Right now we are studying the book of Ecclesiastes. Pray that the Lord will enlighten us as we look into His word.

Please be in prayer for Ada who had a cancer operation a few years ago. She has been in need of further medical treatment in Buenos Aires, but due to family and economic problems, she hasn't gone. Just recently, she came down with an illness that has left her defenses extremely vulnerable. Praise God that she knows Him as Lord.
