

Dear Prayer Partners,

We organized the Tokonabe Concert and Talk at the end of June. Mr. Inoue was one of the ten non-believers that were in attendance. We invited his wife to come, but she did not attend. Mr. Inoue came to two of our worship services recently for which we are grateful. A few of the other non-believers attended our Bilingual Coffee Hour. Please pray for these who are lost, that they will be led to saving faith in Christ.

Thank you for praying for Miss Itoh (35). She has been coming to our Bible study class and worship services regularly. We believe she is becoming very well acquainted with the church members because she now helps serve tea in the kitchen. Pray for her salvation.

We also want to thank you for praying for Mrs. Morita. She came to our worship service for the first time! Thank God! She continues to study the Bible with Miss Kyoko Nishiu. Please continue praying for their salvation. Pray also for them as they both will be away from us for a while. Mrs. Morita must leave to care for her aging mother and Miss Nishiu will be on vacation.

Mr. Shinya Iwata still attends the Bilingual Coffee Hour, but has said that he cannot come to the worship services on Sundays because he sleeps until noon. Please pray that God would awaken his heart to see the need for Jesus as Lord.

Mr. Yoshiki Fukuda needs our prayers as well. He has not come to the Bilingual Coffee Hour for the past two months. He is having some trouble at his place of employment, and told me that he may need to quit. Please pray for God's direction in his life.

Thank you for praying for the Suzuki family! Their third daughter, Wakaba, was born recently. Praise God for this Christian family.

My son Kensaku, who is responsible for the Bilingual Coffee Hour program, has been clearly led to become a pastor. Please pray for him as he prepares to study at seminary in the future. Pray also for him as he meets with Mr. Anderson, a Brazilian. Pray that the Lord will use him in leading Mr. Anderson to Christ.

Thank you for your faithful support and prayers.
