PASTOR GOH

Dear Prayer Partners,

“Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable. The Lord is high unto all them that call upon Him, to all that call upon Him in truth.” (Psalm 145:3,18)

God in His grace fulfills all our desires. We have been able to rebuild the members’ houses that were destroyed by the cyclone because of your prayers and the help we received from members of my overseers’ churches.

After the cyclone, the Lord opened the hearts of the people around us, and now I have several converts from Buddhism. Praise God for His wonderful work! One of the new converts, Daw Tin, was like an evil prophetess who predicted the future. In June, I was invited to pray for the members of her family who were in great need as a result of the cyclone. I prayed with them and shared the gospel with them several times. I thank God that all of them have now received Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord. We are now using their house for a home cell program to which they invite their neighbors, some of whom are showing an interest in Christianity. Praise the Lord for His wonderful work in them. Please pray that Daw Tin and her family will continue to be bright lights in their area, drawing many to the Savior.

I was invited to pray for U Tun. He had become an alcoholic and wanted to stop his drinking habit. I prayed for him three times, and the Lord wonderfully worked in his life; he has totally stopped drinking. I know that all of these things were accomplished by the power of God through the help of your prayers. Please pray that U Tun will not fall into temptation again.

I have been facing opposition from within and without since the beginning of my ministry. David, one of my members, is causing a lot of problems in our fellowship among the members. He speaks against me, does not want to join our weekly services and encourages others to follow his example. Please pray that the Lord will give us wisdom in this situation and teach us how to love one another. Pray also for David, that the Lord will touch his heart.

Mr. Aung is one of our members who is now attending Bible school. When he completes his course, he wants to serve the Lord as a missionary among his people. He is the man who served as a monk for 12 years. Please give thanks to God for what He is doing in Mr. Aung’s life, and pray for his studies.

I really appreciate your zeal for the advancement of God’s kingdom. Thank you very much. May the Lord richly bless you all.

Pastor Goh
