PASTOR KHUP

Dear Prayer Partners,

“Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.” (Psalm 126:5-6)

I thank God that our ministry is continuing to progress with the help of your prayers. The authorities in the area now know that I am the leader of the Christians here in this township and come to me with their questions and advice. Please pray that God will grant me His wisdom and discernment in my dealings with them.

We formed a Christian Fellowship in June, and I was elected chairman. The fellowship is composed of a few members from three different denominations. They come from small churches in our town and in the neighboring villages. We meet every two months for a worship service. Pray that our times together will bring glory to the Lord.

It is the rainy season, and people are working hard in their fields every day. Sometimes we can not conduct our home cell meetings because of the heavy rain. However, our prayer meetings and Sunday worship services are continuing as usual.

Daw Ngwet, a woman who has been supporting my family with rice bags since we arrived in the village, has converted to Christ. Now she is very happy and has become an asset to our ministry. Praise the Lord! She said, “Before I was a Christian, I was just a friend of your family. But now I am one of your family members, because of Jesus Christ who died on the cross and washed away my sins. Even before my conversion, my heart had already been touched by the Holy Spirit.” Please give thanks to God for her conversion, and pray that she will grow to spiritual maturity.

In my weekly church services, U Hung and his family, U Hlaing, Daw Ngwet, and U Phe and his wife are my good helpers. Please pray that they will have sufficient income to meet their families’ needs this year.

Your prayers are a great encouragement to me. Thank you for your support. May God continue His work in you and bless you richly.

Your co-worker in the Lord’s field,

Pastor Khup
