

MYANMAR

Dear Prayer Partners,

I give thanks to God for His answering of our prayers for my mother. I was going back to my village to see my mum on July 3. I was very worried and didn't think I would make it back to see her alive. But the Lord answered our prayers and my mum was getting better! I returned home safely by the middle of the month.

I have tried my best to reach unbelievers by visiting them in their homes and in the workplace. I met several people, but almost all of them were too busy and had no time to give me. However, I was able to share with a few people in their homes and gave them gospel tracts. They are the parents of some of my Sunday school students. Whenever I have the opportunity, I share the gospel with them and we talk about God. Some of them are very strong in their beliefs, so it was difficult. But I believe that nothing is impossible for God.

Recently the Lord directed me to one family whom I met. They are from the Karen tribe. They are nominal Christians; they have no church and never worship with other believers. I shared the gospel with them on four occasions and they are now coming to church. Praise the Lord!

My weekly programs are going well. In my absence, Mr. James, my co-worker, and the kindergarten teachers led the weekly programs. The Lord is blessing our Sunday school ministry with the children. We have more than 30 students now. Praise the Lord! They are all of Buddhist background. Pray for their salvation.

Thank you very much for your wonderful support of my ministry—through prayers and offerings. I pray the Lord will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory. Thank you very much.

Your laborer together in the Lord's field,
