PASTOR N. THANG

Dear Prayer Partners,

I praise the Lord for the strength He gives me to serve Him. This month I spent two days with the newborn believers in a nearby village in order to encourage them. I thank God that they are active in worshipping and praising the Lord. I taught them how to live the Christian life and how they can trust God in all situations. They were very happy that I had come, and were strengthened through the Word. They need to be encouraged by the word of God because they have little knowledge about Him. Sometimes they become very discouraged because of their unbelieving family and friends, and are tempted to go back to their old religion. For this reason they need our prayers. Please pray that they will remain committed to Christ and will be protected from the many temptations they face.

My church's weekly services consist of prayer meetings, home cells and Bible studies. I invite new believers to participate in our weekly programs, and I thank God that most of them are able to join us. Because of your prayers, we are able to have regular services without hindrance. Sometimes it is very difficult to have meetings at night during the rainy season because there is no light on the street when it rains. Please pray that our members will be zealous to come to church no matter what conditions are present.

We are planning to have all-day Bible studies for one week next month to which we want to invite unbelievers. Please pray that the Lord will provide funds to make this possible. Pray that it will be a blessing to everyone and draw many to the Savior. Pray also that the Lord will give me godly wisdom as I prepare and teach the lessons.

I always thank God for giving me people who pray for me and help me financially. I also pray for you, that you will be strengthened in your knowledge of God, and that you will be blessed spiritually as well as physically. Thank you for your continued faithfulness.

Your brother in Christ,

Pastor N. Thang
