Dear Prayer Partners,

My church building was completed in June, and we are all happy and praising God for His provision. Thank you for your prayers. We are now planning a dedication and thanksgiving service. The building is only made of wood with a metal roof, but it is very beautiful. Pray that the Lord will be honored and glorified in it.

I would like to give thanks to God for my new members, U Thang and his family. They have come to us from another village and are becoming good helpers in my ministry. Praise the Lord!

During the rainy season I will only be serving in my village due to the difficulty in travelling. My weekly programs are going well, but people are very busy in their fields which can affect attendance. But, with God's guidance, the ministry is continuing to move forward and more visitors are attending services.

Our Bible study has finished the book of Philippians, and we are now in James. Mrs. Thluai said, "I have tasted what it is like to have Jesus in my life and to have Him with me wherever I go. I have learned how to be spiritually full and how it feels to be spiritually hungry. I appreciate my pastor for teaching us the truth and leading us in the way of righteousness. I can say that our Bible study and home cell programs are very good for us all; so let us pray to be doers of the Word, not hearers only, and we will be blessed. Thank you." Praise God for her words.

The newly formed youth and women's groups are holding services once a month. They are doing very well, and I hope to see more progress in the days to come. Please remember them in your prayers.

In our children's ministry, we are doing our best, but we are not able to meet their educational needs. For this reason, some of the parents have stopped sending their children. In our country, parents living in poverty are often forced to send their children to work in the fields to supplement the family's income. Please pray that the Lord will equip us to meet the educational needs of these children, so that the next generation will be able to break the cycle of poverty.

I would like to give my special thanks to you, my prayer partners, for your faithfulness. Let us stand together in one spirit with one mind and strive together for the faith of the gospel until Jesus comes.

For His glory,

Pastor Z. Kap
