

DIOSDADO MANZANO
serving in CEBU CITY

Dear Prayer Partners,

Mrs. Floreta Lamapguid is a non-government employee who processes legal documents in Cebu. She was a very religious Roman Catholic and closed-minded to the gospel. But this started to change as I began to have contact with her. Whenever the provincial judge was not available to conduct a civil marriage, she would bring the couple to me. The more couples she channeled to me, the more messages she heard me preach. This is how the Lord arranged circumstances so that His word could be planted in her heart. Praise God, Floreta is now attending the Bible study and prayer meetings every week and has even started to attend Sunday services. Nothing is too difficult for God. What is impossible for man is possible for Him. Please pray that Floreta will grow in grace and be able to withstand whatever lies and temptations the enemy puts in her path.

We have just conducted another Bible study group which was started and led by Shiony, one of those from our leadership training class. It is quite exciting to see that our work to shape future leaders is producing fruit. It is my desire to see our potential leaders equipped to handle Bible studies on their own. As other leaders assist Shiony with this study, we are hoping that they will follow her lead and begin studies of their own. This is a simple way to snatch souls from hell, yet it takes a lot of prayer and perseverance to achieve it.

Two months ago I started to have physical check-ups in preparation for my hernia operation. Morning and afternoon I had to line up outside the entrance of the hospital, patiently waiting for my patient number to be called before I could line up again inside the hospital to see the physician. Since my budget only allowed me to go to the government hospital, I had to mingle with hundreds of out patients every day, each wanting to be attended to first. Praise God for the success of my operation. With His help I am now almost fully recovered and back to my normal activities. My White Fields comrades visited me in the hospital and made me comfortable; however, they also made me laugh which is not good after surgery. But God is gracious, and all went well. Thank you very much for continually praying for me and my family.

It is a joy for me to share with you all that is happening here in Cebu City, because I know that your prayer and financial support have contributed to every soul that is being saved. To God be the glory.

Faithfully in His service,

Pastor Diosdado Manzano
