Dear Prayer Partners,

Last month my co-pastors and some members of the church gathered to clean the church lot. We used this as an opportunity for fellowship. We committed to pray for each other; we call this group USA—Unity, Strengthening and Accountability. We also took this time to pray, asking for the Lord's provision of the needed materials for our own small church building. Please pray that the Lord will grant this desire.

I am very happy to share that our Wednesday prayer meeting is well attended. Even our new contacts are coming, realizing the importance of prayer. Pray that the Lord will shed His light on these unbelievers and that they will come to saving knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Meling is one of our church members whom God is using as a children's Sunday school teacher. She has two children and a generous husband. She is also involved in other church activities. Meling's brother is also an active member of the church; he invites his friends and teammates to Bible study.

I really thank the Lord for providing us the needed teachers and leaders for this pioneering work. Meling has such a heart for teaching the children. She brings her children with her and has exposed them to what she is doing for the Lord. Now her children help her by preparing the songs and visual aids for the lessons. Meling said, "It is really my desire that all family members in our household serve the Lord. To have that happen, I need to train them while they are young." What encouraging words from a new believer! Please pray that the Lord will grant her desire in being used by God, becoming a channel of blessings to other Christians. Pray that the Lord will bless this family with spiritual growth.

A relative of mine, Manang Milagros, is one of my new contacts. She lost her husband due to a prolonged ailment. Her family was well off financially, but lost it when they got involved in illegal activities. Manang Milagros was so depressed that she almost lost hope. I prayed for her whenever I was with her or her children. I talked about spiritual things and I could tell that they were very interested. I offered to conduct a Bible study in their home, and Manang Milagros agreed. Presently there are a few adults who are joining us. Please pray that the Lord will draw more people to this meeting and that the lost will find Christ as Lord and Savior.

Thank you for your support through prayer and financial gifts. May God bless you richly according to His riches in Christ Jesus.
